

APPLICATION FORM FOR A MEMORIAL TREE BOULDER PLAQUE

Memorial Tree Boulder Terms and Conditions

1. The boulder is the responsibility of the purchaser which is provided by the cemeteries office to be placed in council owned cemeteries.
2. The boulder position will be in front of the purchased memorial tree and will be subject to memorial inspection by the Council on a regular basis. If the boulder is deemed as unsafe the council reserve the right to remove it. If the boulder or the surrounding area of the tree has fallen below an accepted standard (cosmetic/structural) to that of its surroundings, the owner will need to inform on their intention to carry out any required maintenance.
3. The wording on the inscription will be approved by the council on submission. The council reserves the right to refuse inscriptions which may be deemed offensive.
4. You may only choose the boulders provided on this application.
5. The purchaser should keep the Council informed of any change of address so that they can be contacted.
6. Purchasers are advised not to fix vases, photographs, or other items to the tree as this may project and cause injury or damage to clothing of people passing by.

The Council will not be held responsible for any vandalism. This responsibility is wholly the purchasers following planting.
